Sunday 21st December 2025 – Fourth Sunday of Advent

Mary a special person

This weekend the Gospels introduce us to Mary. The news of a pregnancy brings with it a conflict of emotions. A mother knows that her life style for the best part of a year will be dictated by her unborn child. For all the morning nausea, the heavy steps and breathless days she is totally responsible for the life of a new human being. Never again will she and her child be so totally one. After birth others can care for the child but during pregnancy there is no-one capable of life giving but herself.

And so it was in Nazareth. Mary had nothing to give but herself. From her humanity, she gave him his humanity. Every heart beat of hers gave Him, (Jesus), a heart beat to love with. Mary was chosen to give Jesus flesh and blood.

Christmas -A SPECIAL TIME

Most human beings are social beings, and Christmas is a wonderful time to meet with people and celebrate together. It is a time for family and friends, and this is how it should be. For those of us who can mix with others we should not forget about those for who Christmas can be a very lonely time. We should remember those who have been bereaved in the past year, those living alone, people who are in our care homes or who are sick in hospital.

The next few days can for many people be a busy time, with many things to be done but amid all the bits and pieces that we feel we must do we should take time to reflect on what Christmas really means. For Christians it is a special occasion. Christmas offers hope, which in today's world is a precious gift. A quiet time, time out is necessary for body, mind and soul.

We may spend money on gifts but often the real gift is spending time alone and in the company of others. Relaxing in the company of friends and Jesus is important.

May the birth of our Saviour, Jesus Christ, fill your hearts with joy, peace, and love. May you be blessed with moments of stillness, connection, and celebration with loved ones.

To those who may be spending Christmas with a vacant chair or feeling lonely, know that you are not forgotten, and that God's love and our church community are with you, wrapping you in warmth and care this Christmas and beyond.

As we look ahead to the New Year, let's hold onto hope, promise, and renewal. May 2026 be a year of growth, health, and happiness for you all.
