John the Baptist

He had the insight to see the presence of God at work and the courage to give witness to what he saw. John pointed out Jesus for others.

Today's gospel traces a journey of growth in his understanding of Jesus. From a situation of not knowing Jesus (v. 31) he comes to recognise him as the lamb of God who is to take away the sins of the world (v. 29), as the one who baptises with the Holy Spirit and makes holy (v. 33), as the chosen one of God (v. 34).

In stating what Jesus does John is telling us the kind of salvation that we actually need. We come to know how necessary salvation is not just through reflection on life but, more importantly, through the way that God has shown us his mercy. God shows us why and where we need his saving presence.

John met stern resistance to his message. Many preferred to stay in denial rather than let the word of God be the measure of their lives. Among those who came to listen to John many were utterly unaware of just how defensive they had become in their relationship with God. God wanted a living relationship, an attentive listening to his word plus an active seeking out how best to respond especially through justice in all relationships. John brings a message of hope. His hope is not based on the goodness of his hearers but on the mercy of God. Spurred by a God-given desire to be authentic, people flocked to hear John. The mercy of God was at work.

John the Baptist presented what continues to be a challenging summons to conversion.

IT'S EASY TO SEE WHAT ALCOHOL IS DOING TO THE DRINKER BUT CAN YOU SEE WHAT IT IS DOING TO YOU?

These questions can help you identify if someone else's drinking is affecting you. If your answer is yes to any of the following, Al-Anon Family Groups can help. · Do you worry about how much someone else drinks? · Do you tell lies to cover up for someone else's drinking? · Are you afraid to upset someone for fear that it will set off a drinking bout? · Do you feel that if the drinker loves you, he will stop drinking to please you? · Do you feel like a failure because you can't stop the drinking? · Do you make threats such as "If you don't stop drinking, I'll leave you"? · Do you search for hidden alcohol? · Do you feel angry, confused or depressed most of the time? For further information contact the Al Anon confidential helpline on 0800 0086 811 or email helpline@al-anonuk.org.uk . Alternatively, tel 028 9068 2368.

Rosary on the Beach – Benone Beach Sunday, 18th January at 3.00pm.

Thought for the week - While the Baptist plays a unique role as the first witness to Jesus, he is first of many witnesses. Later in John's gospel, Jesus tells his own disciples that, when they receive 'the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father', they, too, will be his witnesses (cf Jn 15:26-27). We, too, have been given the same commission. We have been baptised in the Spirit and empowered to witness to Jesus as the Chosen One of God, the Light of the World, and to lead others to him. In carrying out this commission, we have a great model in John the Baptist. Like him we are challenged to point away from ourselves towards Christ.

The role of being a witness to Christ is memorably expressed by the great fourth century theologian, St Augustine, in the following words:

*I listen he is the one who speaks.
I am enlightened he is the light
I am the ear he is the Word.*

We must not stand in the way or block the light of Christ; we must reflect it.
